

Why partner with EDC? In partnership with you as a member, EDC advocates for your business and community by recruiting new companies to the area, as well as facilitating business retention and expansion; connecting the dots between the private and public sector to create a vibrant and diverse economy.

Prosperity: Business Attraction and Local Business Retention and Expansion

- Bring in new dollars into local economy
- Create primary jobs
- Infrastructure and Site Development

Skills: Workforce Development and Education

- Business and industry specific training events
- Connecting business needs with training facilitators

Innovation: Supporting Entrepreneurship and Small Business

- Identify market gaps or new market opportunities
- Maintain a network of entrepreneurial service providers

Livability: Economic and Community Transformation

- We advocate on your behalf with the State, Business Council, and local governing bodies on issues that affect your business and the business community
- Proactive Leaders that are committed to improving the economy and quality of life in the Thermopolis Area

EDC Membership Benefits

- Access to all of our services listed above
- Opportunity to run for a seat on the Board of Directors
- Serve on committees working towards specific projects that matter to you
- Attend networking and business development events
- Promote your business through our newsletter, social media, and website
- Work with other industry leaders towards common goals
- Know that you are investing in your community and improving the economic quality of life in Hot Springs County